1 The Challenge

This is a template for submitting abstracts to IEMS '15, the 6th Industrial Engineering and Management Symposium. The authors should take into consideration the aim of the symposium to highlight the impact of DEGI research on society and use a language accessible to a practitioner with an average scientific culture. Additionally, the authors should consider using the three presented sections ("The challenge", "The Methodology" and "The value to Society") or similar ones. The abstract should be written in English and should have no more than 2 pages. No references are allowed.

This template also contains an example of how to insert figures. In the code one can see the environment where figure 1 was inserted and how its label was used to refer the figure in the text. The environment also allows the authors to change the description of the figure (caption) and its size (width).

Concerning tables, it is possible to download from the web an MS Excel plugin (Excel2Latex) that automatically transforms the current selection from Excel to LaTeX. Most of the formatting will be kept (bold, border lines, italic, multicolumn cells). The generated code can be copied to the clipboard then included in the LaTeX document. In the code one can see the environment where table 1 was inserted.
