📍 To be announced FOR ALL

An initiative open to the academic community of the University of Porto, aimed at promoting physical activity, solidarity, and socializing across the entire community during the week of National Sustainability Day. The event is organized by the FEUP Sustainability Committee, with the essential support of the Rectorate of the University of Porto and the Asprela IN – Life & Culture Lab project.

The Asprela IN – Life & Culture Lab project is a collaborative, community-driven initiative that brings together the seven faculties of the University of Porto on the Asprela campus, including FEUP.

Come be part of this active, solidarity-driven movement! Bring your friends and family and join us in this celebration.
